Dear Shawn Musgrave:

Thank you for submitting a FOIA request to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP). Your FOIA case number is CBP-2018-013173, is seeking data provided to Department of Homeland Security office of Inspector General with regards to the agency's use of summonses under 19 U.S.C.§ 1509.

Upon review of this request, CBP has determined that, if such records exist, they would fall under the purview of The Department of Homeland Security office of Inspector General.

Please use the following address if you decide to contact DHS OIG:

Office of Inspector General/MAIL STOP 0305
Department of Homeland Security
245 Murray Lane SW
Washington, DC 20528-0305

You have the right to appeal this determination that no records exist within CBP that would be responsive to your request. Should you wish to do so, you must send your appeal and a copy of this letter, within 60 days of the date of this letter, to: FOIA Appeals, Policy and Litigation Branch, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, 90 K Street, NE, 10th Floor Washington, DC 20229-1177, following the procedures outlined in the DHS FOIA regulations at Title 6 C.F.R. § 5.9. Your envelope and letter should be marked "FOIA Appeal." Copies of the FOIA and DHS regulations are available at www.dhs.gov/foia.

The Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) also mediates disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. If you are requesting access to your own records (which is considered a Privacy Act request), you should know that OGIS does not have the authority to handle requests made under the Privacy Act of 1974. If you wish to contact OGIS, you may email them at ogis@nara.gov or call (877) 684-6448.

If you need to contact our office again about this matter, please refer to CBP-2018-013173. This office can be reached at (202) 325-0150.

Sincerely,

CBP FOIA Division
